

Nepal Study Center

Nepal: Which Way from Here

Democratic Experience, Insurgency and the Prospects for Development

Presented by: Dr. Ram S. Mahat
(Former Finance Minister and the Spokesperson of Nepali Congress, Nepal)

Author of:
In Defense of Democracy: Dynamics and Fault Lines of Nepal's Political Economy (2005)

(<http://www.mandalabookpoint.com>)

Thursday October 27th

3:30 – 5PM

Dane Smith Hall, Room 123
University of New Mexico

Organized by:
Nepal Study Center
Department of Economics
University of New Mexico

In Collaboration with:
Department of Political Science,
International Studies, Peace Studies
and the Water Resources Program

Interaction with Students on

Political economy of multi-billion dollar Arun III Hydro Power Project
(Development, Politics, and the Environment)

Economics Building Room 1002

12:30 – 1:30PM

Moderator: Professor Jennifer Thacher

Directions:

Dane Smith Hall Room 123:

From Lomas, go South on Yale. Dane Smith Hall is located at the end of Yale on your right.

Economics Building Room 1002:

From Dane Smith Hall, east past the University house, behind the Social Sciences Building.

For more information, Please call the Economics' Main office: 277-5304.